Such information may be used for website security, troubleshooting, performance monitoring, and improving the website experience.

4. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information collected for the following purposes:

- To respond to enquiries and requests submitted through the website.
- To communicate with you regarding your enquiry.
- To provide information about our services when requested.
- To process and manage business or project-related enquiries.
- To respond to tender-related communications where applicable.
- To maintain website security and prevent misuse.
- To monitor and improve website performance and functionality.
- To comply with applicable legal, regulatory, or governmental requirements.
- To protect our legal rights, property, and legitimate business interests.

We will not use personal information for purposes that are incompatible with the purpose for which it was collected, except where permitted or required by applicable law.

5. Contact and Enquiry Forms

Our website may provide enquiry forms through which you can submit information such as your name, email address, phone number, inquiry category, and message.

We use this information primarily to understand and respond to your enquiry.

Please do not submit sensitive personal information, confidential credentials, passwords, financial information, or other information that is not necessary for your enquiry through public website forms.

6. Sharing of Personal Information

We do not sell or rent your personal information.

We may share personal information only where reasonably necessary, including:

- With authorized employees or representatives who need the information to respond to your enquiry.
- With service providers who assist us in operating, maintaining, securing, or supporting our website and communication systems.
- Where required by applicable law, court order, governmental authority, or lawful regulatory request.
- Where necessary to protect the rights, property, security, or safety of SAPL, our users, or others.
- In connection with a lawful corporate transaction such as a merger, restructuring, acquisition, or transfer of business assets, where applicable.

Any third-party service provider handling personal information on our behalf is expected to process such information only for legitimate and authorized purposes.

7. Cookies and Similar Technologies

Our website may use cookies or similar technologies where required for website functionality, security, preferences, or analytics.

Cookies may help us:

- Operate essential website functions.
- Remember certain preferences.
- Understand website usage and performance.
- Improve the user experience.
- Maintain website security.

Where applicable law requires consent for non-essential cookies, we will seek such consent through appropriate mechanisms.

You may also manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect some website functionality.

8. Third-Party Websites and Services

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or services, including external platforms used for maps, careers, social media, or other purposes.

Third-party websites operate independently and have their own privacy policies and terms.

SAPL does not control the privacy practices of third-party websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any third-party website before providing personal information.

9. Data Security

We take reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect personal information against unauthorized access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, loss, or destruction.

However, no method of transmission over the Internet or method of electronic storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Accordingly, while we take reasonable steps to protect your information, we cannot guarantee absolute security of information transmitted to or through the website.

10. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, including responding to enquiries, maintaining business records, resolving disputes, complying with legal obligations, and protecting our legitimate interests.

The actual retention period may vary depending on:

- The nature of the information.
- The purpose for which it was collected.
- Business requirements.
- Applicable legal or regulatory requirements.
- Security and dispute-resolution requirements.

When information is no longer required, we may securely delete, anonymize, or otherwise dispose of it in accordance with applicable requirements and our internal practices.

11. Your Privacy Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may have rights relating to your personal information, including the ability to:

- Request information about the personal data we hold about you.
- Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete information.
- Request deletion of personal information where applicable.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.
- Raise a concern or grievance regarding the processing of your personal information.

Requests may be submitted using the contact information provided below.

We may need to verify your identity before processing certain requests.

We may also retain information where required or permitted by applicable law.

12. Children's Privacy

Our website is intended for general audiences and is not specifically directed at children.

We do not knowingly seek to collect personal information from children through the website.

If you believe that a child has provided personal information to us without appropriate authorization, please contact us so that we can review and take appropriate action where required.

13. International Data Transfers

Depending on the technology, hosting, service providers, or communication platforms used to operate the website, personal information may be processed or stored in locations outside your state, region, or country.

Where applicable, we will take reasonable measures required by applicable law to ensure that personal information is handled with appropriate safeguards.

14. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our website, business practices, technology, or applicable legal requirements.

When we make changes, we will update the “Last Updated” date at the beginning of this Privacy Policy.

We encourage you to review this page periodically for the latest information about our privacy practices.
